Designated Child Protection Teachers: Mr McKane & Mrs Wilson

Please support the Book Fair at school this week. The timetable for class visits was in last week's newsletter and was posted on Seesaw.

Our next meeting is on Wednesday 18 October at 7.00pm on Room 12. We will be finalising the plans for our Halloween Party and looking ahead to the Christmas Fair. Please join us, and join in!

Congratulations

Lucy won the cross-poles showjumping class in the Ardnacashel Equestrian Center Showjumping league. Lucy and her pony Beauty competed over 5 weeks and had clear rounds on all occasions to collect five golden tickets and win their class.

James is our first Accelerated Reader Millionaire this term. Well done James!

Well done to Reuben who took part in a 2km 'Zombie Run' at the weekend. What a great effort!

FOOTBALL REPORT

We kicked off our football season last week with a bang as we travelled across Belfast to face Glenwood Primary School in a thrilling pre-season friendly. With over 20 P7s involved, the fixture lived up to expectations as we secured a cumulative 6-2 victory. It was a very encouraging start to his season as both of our teams showed off impressive levels of skill, whilst demonstrating our core values of respect towards their opponents and co-operation as they worked together to achieve the win.

A special mention to Sonny, Edward and Ben, who scored one each, and Adam who produced a wonderful hat-trick.

We are looking forward to building off this strong start as we begin our cup runs this month.

NURSERY AND P2 VISIT THE COMMUNITY GARDEN AT THE YMCA

Last week, Nursery and Primary 2 pupils visited the community garden at the YMCA. They harvested some of the vegetables, sampled the tomatoes and planted spring bulbs. #community

ACTIVE TRAVEL COMPETITION

COMPETITION TIME!

If you cycle or scoot to school any day from now until the end of term, your name will be entered into a draw to win a prize. The School Council will go to classrooms daily to record names. Your name goes in the hat EACH TIME you cycle or scoot, increasing your chances of winning!

#chooseactivetravel

Please encourage children to cross the road under the supervision of our new crossing patrol, Mohamed. This will help to ensure our pupils are safe when crossing the road.
