Community Support

In response to recent racial tensions we are offering all members of our school community, a zoom session facilitated by Orla McKeating of 'Still I Rise Diversity Storytelling'.

The objectives of this session are:

- To offer a supportive space for honest, compassionate discussion,
- To support families impacted by racism and unrest,
- To equip attendees with language and awareness to support children.
- To Create a sense of togetherness and shared responsibility.

COMMUNITY CALL

In light of recent racial unrest across Northern Ireland—including the riots in Ballymena—we invite you to a Zoom gathering for parents, carers, teachers and members of our community.

This isn't a workshop or a panel. There's no pressure, no agenda.
Just a space to exhale. To be heard. To feel less alone.
