P6 CUP SUCCESS

Our P6 football team were victorious in their clash against Orangefield Primary in the second round of the Edco 9-a-side Cup. In an energetic game we created chance after chance but every time we scored we got pegged back. After full time the score was 3-3 (Goals from Adam, Leo H and Sonny). Penalties were nerve racking as a sizeable crowd had formed from parents, friends and the cross-country team. Sonny, Leo H and Fionn stepped up and dispatched their penalties emphatically - putting us through to the next round! An excellent game played in good spirits.

CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONS!

Congratulations to the boys and girls who took part in the NI Finals last Friday. The boys' team retained their Northern Ireland title, winning the competition for the second year in a row. This is a fabulous achievement! The girls' team also took part in the final and did very well to finish in 4th place overall. Well done to Adam Hanna who was 11th in the boys' race, and Beibhinn Bourke who finished 5th in the girls' race. Both pupils qualified for a place in the NI Primary Schools' Cross Country Squad.

Well done to all the pupils who took part!

CONGRATULATIONS

Well done to James H, Rory, Theo and Fionn McCann (not pictured), who won the Lagan District Cubs quiz competition and went on to represent their troop in the Northern Ireland final.

Congratulations to Leo, who came 3rd in a tennis tournament at the weekend. Sofia came 1st in a tennis tournament and was highly commended in an Irish dancing competition.
